The elements of these marketing opportunities are a starting point and include social media marketing. TMCN is open to customizing a package that fits your specific needs.

Program Details

E-Newsletter – approximately 900 recipients in 33 counties and the list is growing (community leaders, elected officials, chamber representatives, economic development practitioners & civic volunteers). Recipients are encouraged to forward e-newsletters through local networks.

Network Events – Membership Meetings- representatives from member communities meet three times a year in Abilene as well as various programs/training held throughout the region; key community/economic development issues are addressed to better prepare member communities for growth; delegates share innovative ideas and resources and network on mutual challenges and successes.

Leadership TMCN- high school students are partnered with local business mentors to develop leadership skills which provide a catalyst for planning, marketing and completing an impactful community project; student projects compete for cash prizes presented at the Annual Conference.

Annual Conference – 250-300 attendees (community leaders, elected officials, chamber representatives, civic volunteers & high school students); solutions seminars; expo for state & federal agencies, local organizations and service providers; community awards; and, scholarship presentations.

Texas Midwest Travel Guide – 40,000 printed copies distributed annually (Texas Travel Centers, CVBs, chambers of commerce, hotels/motels in region, advertisers, libraries, hospitals); online digital version; and, mobile apps.

Legislative Awareness – Lawmakers Luncheon is held in May of the interim year of the State Legislature, panelists are State Senators & Representatives with discussions on current issues affecting rural communities; Day at the Capitol is held in February of the Legislative Session, community representatives meet with legislators and their staff as well as State agency representatives to discuss rural issues.
